Smythe Welcomes New Controller and Manager

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – January 23, 2020

VANCOUVER, BC – Smythe LLP (Smythe) is proud to welcome a new controller and manager to its downtown Vancouver office.

Derrick Fung, CPA, CGA, joined Smythe with over eight years of internal accounting and reporting experience in mid-sized professional service firms. From recording the books to managing month and year ends, he has seen corporate accounting from bottom to top.

Dorothy Celis joined Smythe in January 2020 after working at a big four firm and other mid-tier accounting firms in Singapore, the United States and the Philippines. Dorothy will provide audit, assurance and advisory services to public and private companies, as well as not-for-profit organizations across various industries.

“We have added highly qualified resources to running our practice,” said Human Resources Partner, Herve Leong-Chung. “With Derrick taking care of business internally, our client-facing resources will have more capacity. Additionally, we continue to bolster those client-facing resources with the most recent addition being Dorothy.”

Please join us in welcoming Derrick and Dorothy to the Smythe team.
